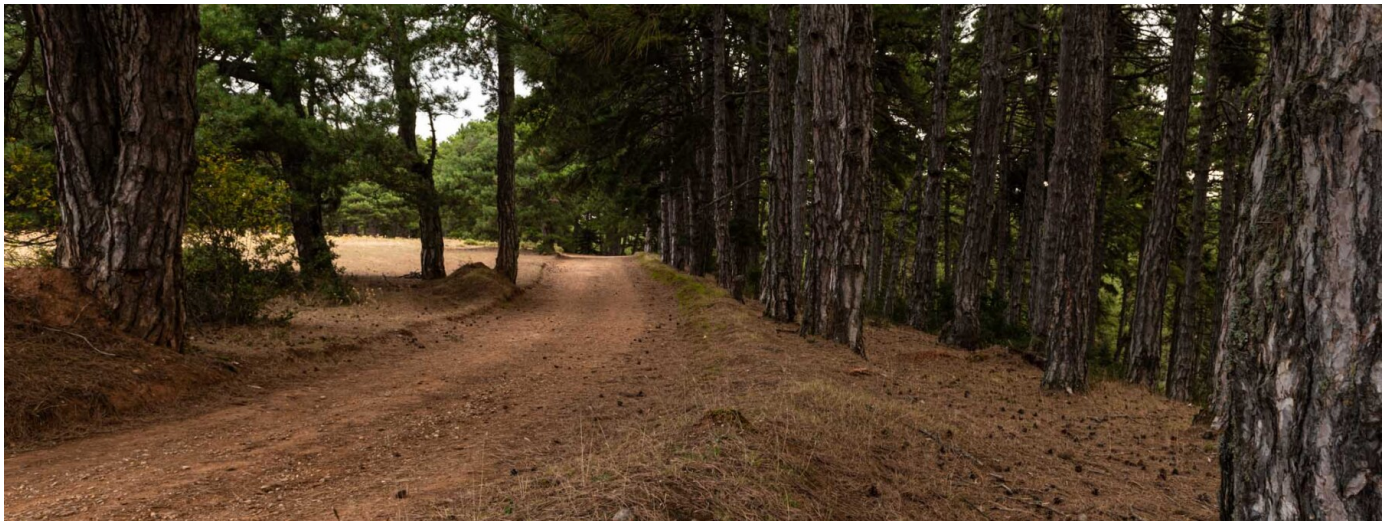
Velina



About

Velina is a mountain village 32.8 km west of Corinth and about 12.3 km from Xylokastro.

What to expect

The village stands at about 930 metres, north of Kaisari, surrounded by black pine and fir forest. Locals work mainly in farming and livestock, and the village is known for its tomatoes, celebrated with a festival at the end of summer. The main village church dates from the late 19th century.
