CORINTHIA

Day trips from Corinthia

About

Corinthia sits at the centre of things. Based here, you can reach some of the most important monuments in Greece within an hour.

Mycenae — ~45 km

The citadel of the Atreids, with the Lion Gate and the great beehive tomb. The Argive Heraion combines easily with it.

Nafplio — ~60 km

The first capital of the modern Greek state: a Venetian old town, Palamidi with its 999 steps, and the Bourtzi in the harbour. The best evening out in the region.

Epidaurus — ~80 km

The ancient theatre with its famous acoustics, and the Asklepieion. In summer it hosts performances — if your dates match, it is worth booking.

Kalavryta & the rack railway — ~110 km

The little train that climbs the Vouraikos gorge from Diakopto — one of the finest rail journeys in Europe. Combine it with the Cave of the Lakes.

Athens — ~85 km

The Acropolis and the museums in a day, back in the evening. See our Corinth guide for a base.

Delphi — ~150 km

Further out, but doable in one full day via the Rio–Antirrio bridge or the E75.

Before you set off

All distances are approximate and by road. Check opening hours for the archaeological sites — they change with the season.
