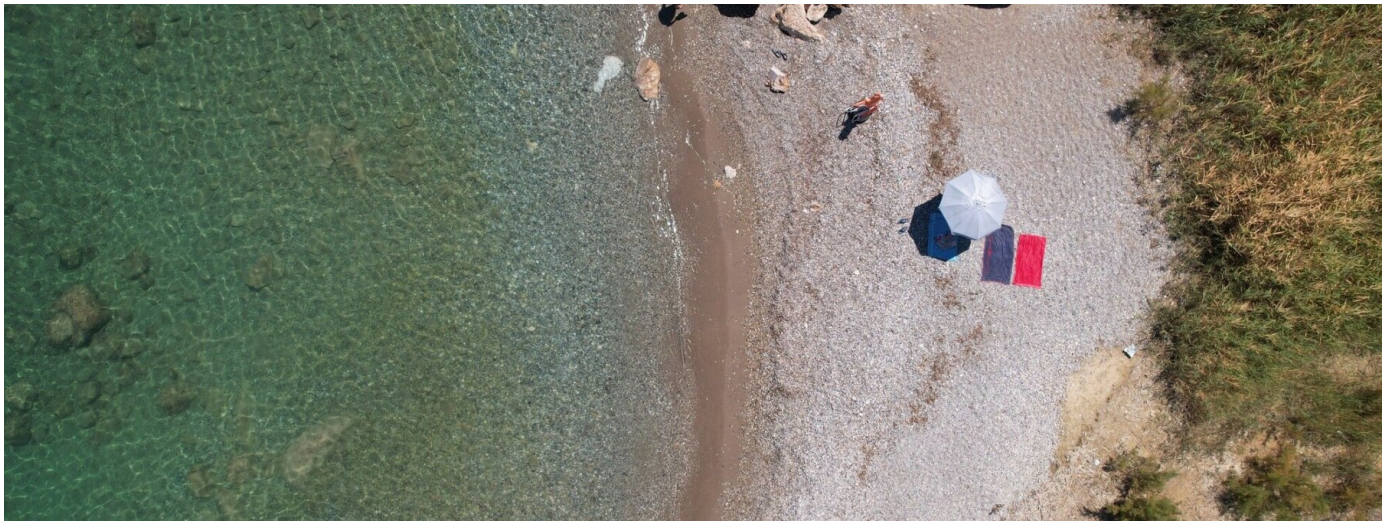
Melissi Beach



About

Melissi is one of those places chosen by people after rest rather than entertainment.

What to expect

Small pebbles on a fairly roomy shore, with clear water that deepens gradually. It is not organised: no music, no sunbeds, no facilities — and that is precisely the point of it.

Around it

A pine grove looking out over small boats scattered left and right, and one beach bar. It draws families and older visitors above all.

Access

Park somewhere safe and walk through the little wood to the water.

Useful information

Best time to visit	April–June & September–October (mild, uncrowded)
