Terms of Use

About

Welcome to Visit Corinthia (visitcorinthia.com). These Terms of Use govern your access to and use of this website. By using the site, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, please do not use the site.

1. About Visit Corinthia

Visit Corinthia is an online guide to the region of Corinthia, Greece. The site provides information about destinations, sights and local businesses, hosts a directory of business listings, and helps visitors discover and enquire about accommodation, tours and activities offered by third-party providers.

2. Use of the Website

You agree to use the site lawfully and not to: post false, misleading or unlawful content; infringe the rights of others; attempt to gain unauthorised access to the site or its systems; upload malicious code; or use the site in any way that could damage, disable or overburden it.

3. Accounts & Business Listings

Some features require an account. You are responsible for keeping your login details secure and for all activity under your account. Business owners who submit listings are responsible for the accuracy, legality and content of those listings. We may review, edit or remove any listing at our discretion.

4. Bookings & Payments

Paid listing packages and any bookings are subject to our Refund & Cancellation Policy. Bookings for accommodation, tours and activities may be fulfilled by third-party providers, whose own terms apply. We are not liable for the acts or omissions of third-party providers.

Listing packages are sold as a subscription, billed monthly or annually. No card payments are taken on this website, and a package cannot be bought online. You choose a package through the request form on the packages page; we then contact you and payment is made by bank transfer, or as otherwise agreed. There is no automatic renewal and no stored payment method — we contact you before each new period.

Prices shown on the packages page are net and are subject to 24% VAT. The final amount is shown on the packages page and is confirmed to you in writing before you pay.

New businesses may publish a listing with a 7-day free trial, with no card required. The trial does not renew and does not turn into a paid subscription automatically. When it ends, an existing listing stays online, but adding a listing is closed until a package is active.

Each package includes specific features, as set out on the packages page. If a subscription ends or is cancelled, the listing remains published with its basic details while the package extras (additional photos, video, social links, featured placement and so on) are switched off. No data is deleted — the features return as soon as a package is active again.

5. Intellectual Property

All content on this site (text, images, logos and design) is owned by Visit Corinthia or its licensors and is protected by law. 6. Third-Party Links & Services

The site contains links to, and content from, third parties (for example Google Maps, review services, social media and booking partners such as bookings.liastravel.com). We do not control and are not responsible for the content or practices of those third parties.

7. Limitation of Liability
