This Privacy Policy explains how Visit Corinthia ("we", "us") collects, uses and protects your personal data when you use visitcorinthia.com, in accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and Greek law.

2. What Data We Collect

- Data you provide: your name, email, phone and message when you use our contact form; account and business details when you register or submit a listing; and the details of your request when you ask for a listing package or make a booking.
- Data collected automatically: your IP address, device and browser information, pages visited and similar usage data, collected through cookies and analytics (see our Cookies Policy).

3. How and Why We Use Your Data

- To respond to your enquiries — based on our legitimate interest or your consent.
- To create and manage accounts and business listings, and to handle your requests and bookings — for the performance of a contract.
- To send transactional emails such as confirmations of requests and bookings — for the performance of a contract.
- To operate, secure, analyse and improve the website — based on our legitimate interest, and on your consent for analytics cookies.
- To comply with legal obligations, such as tax and accounting requirements.

4. Cookies and Analytics

We use cookies and Google Analytics (measurement ID G-X6D315GBLQ) to understand how the site is used. For full details of the cookies we use and how to control them, please see our Cookies Policy.

5. Who We Share Data With

This website does not accept card payments and does not use a payment provider. You choose a package through a request form; we then contact you and payment is arranged by bank transfer, or as otherwise agreed. The only details we hold are the ones you send us in the form (name, business, email, telephone) and the ones shown on the bank instruction. No card details are ever entered on this website, and none are transmitted through it to anyone.

Beyond that, the following categories of recipient process data on our behalf, so that the site can work: Hostinger (website hosting and the mail server that sends our email); Cloudflare (content delivery and protection against attacks); and Google — for site statistics (Google Analytics), maps, Google reviews shown on listings, and the assistant on the site, whose conversations are processed by Google in order to produce an answer. We do not sell or rent personal data to anyone. We disclose data to a public authority only where the law requires it.

6. International Transfers

Some of our providers (for example Google and Cloudflare) may process data outside the EU/EEA. Where this happens, appropriate safeguards such as the European Commission's Standard Contractual Clauses are in place.

7. How Long We Keep Data

We keep personal data only for as long as necessary for the purposes described above or as required by law (for example, accounting records).

8. Your Rights

Under the GDPR you have the right to access, rectify, erase, restrict or object to the processing of your personal data, and the right to data portability. You may also withdraw your consent at any time. To exercise these rights, contact us at visitcorinthia@gmail.com. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Hellenic Data Protection Authority (www.dpa.gr).

9. Security

We take reasonable technical and organisational measures to protect your data, including encryption of the website via HTTPS.

10. Children

The site is not intended for children under 16, and we do not knowingly collect their personal data.

11. Changes

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. The current version is always available on this page.
