GUIDE · CORINTHIA

A weekend in the wine villages

About

Nemea and the surrounding mountain villages make up one of Greece’s finest wine destinations. A weekend here means vineyards, winery visits and genuine hospitality.

Saturday: wineries & Agiorgitiko

Nemea is the country’s largest PDO red-wine zone, defined by the Agiorgitiko grape. Book visits with tastings — see our guide to the wineries of Nemea.

Midday: traditional cuisine

In Corinthia’s mountain villages you’ll find tavernas serving local meats, pies and regional produce.

Sunday: antiquities & nature

Visit Ancient Nemea with the Temple of Zeus and the stadium, and pair it with a stop at Ancient Corinth.

Nearby: food & where to stay

For food, To Polychoro taverna in Trikala stands out. To stay in nature, Pleiadon Gi Mountain Resort & Spa is ideal.
