Easter & spring in Corinthia

About

Spring is one of the most beautiful seasons in Corinthia. The hillsides fill with wildflowers, the weather is mild and perfect for hiking, and the villages come alive with Easter traditions.

Nature & hiking

It's the time to explore the mountain villages around Xylokastro and Lake Doxa, with lush green landscapes and fresh air.

Easter in the villages

Experience the authentic Easter customs and local hospitality. Archaeological sites such as Ancient Corinth are a joy without the summer crowds.

First walks by the sea

In coastal areas like Kiato, the first springtime strolls by the water begin.
