Folklore Museum of Corinth

About

Beside the seafront in Corinth stands the town Folklore Museum — a completely different perspective from the archaeological museums of the region.

What you will see

The collection focuses on more recent popular tradition: traditional costume from various parts of Greece, jewellery, weaving and embroidery, household utensils and the tools of rural life.

It is a chance to see how Corinthia lived over the last two centuries — a history that usually stays in the shadow of antiquity.
