AREAS · CORINTHIA

Zevgolatio

About

The small town of Zevgolatio lies 11.5 km west of Corinth, roughly 2.1 km from Vrachati.

What to expect

Zevgolatio is a small town and the seat of the Municipality of Velo-Vocha, set on the fertile Vocha plain between Corinth and Kiato at about 50 metres, with almost 4,000 residents (2021 census). Its economy rests on farming, and it is home to many businesses packing agricultural produce and making vinegar. A Venetian document of 1311 records it as Tranozevgolateio, known at the time for its large trade fairs.

History and character

A Venetian document of 1311 records the village as Tranozevgolateio, known for its large trade fairs.

After the founding of the modern Greek state, from 1833 to 1840, it was the seat of the Municipality of Aigialeia, with its own magistrates' and commercial courts. Today it is the seat of the Municipality of Velo-Vocha. It is crossed by the Zapantis stream, which rises near Nemea and reaches the sea at Vrachati.

Closest points

- Vochaiko — 1.3 km
- Agia Marina — 1.5 km
- Vrachati — 1.7 km
- Assos — 2 km

Practical notes

- As a municipal seat it has shops, cafés and public services.
- The Corinthian Gulf coast at Vrachati is about 2 km away.
- The plain gets very hot in summer — plan walks for the morning or late afternoon.

Useful information

Best time to visit	April–June & September–October (mild, uncrowded)

Take it with you

Navigate with Google Maps

Open this page on your phone visitcorinthia.com/en/area/zevgolatio

Enjoy exploring Corinthia!