Ano Almiri

About

Ano Almyri is a small settlement 13.7 km south-east of Corinth, above Almyri bay.

What to expect

The settlement sits at about 55 metres on the Corinth–Epidaurus provincial road, overlooking the Saronic Gulf. The church of Agios Ioannis stands at its centre. Seaside Kato Almyri, with its beach and tavernas, is less than 2 km away, and the Kokkosi wetland is close by.

Closest points

- Kokkosi Beach — 883 m
- Nea Almiri — 1.2 km
- Vlasaiika — 1.5 km
- Kato Almiri — 1.7 km

Practical notes

- It lies on the Corinth–Epidaurus road, so access is easy.
- For swimming and food, head down to Kato Almyri.
- In summer the coastal strip below gets fairly busy.
