Kavos

About

Kavos is a seaside settlement at Isthmia, 8 km south-east of Corinth.

What to expect

The settlement lies on the Isthmus, just south of the Corinth Canal's exit into the Saronic Gulf. It is known for a historic fish taverna that has been operating since 1964. Palaio Kalamaki, sections of the Hexamilion Wall and the archaeological site of Isthmia are all very close.

Closest points

- Palaio Kalamaki — 499 m
- Hexamilion Wall — 942 m
- Kryfi Beach — 992 m
- Isthmia — 1.3 km

Practical notes

- Sea and a taverna right by the Canal.
- On summer weekends, parking near the shore fills up quickly.
- Combine your visit with the submersible bridge at Isthmia.
