Krines

About

Krines is a village in the Municipality of Velo-Vocha, 15.3 km west of Corinth and about 4.2 km from Vrachati.

What to expect

The village lies on the plain between ancient Sikyon and ancient Corinth, at about 40 metres, and had 1,033 permanent residents in the 2021 census. Until 1918 it was called Imvraimbei. The economy is based on farming: citrus fruit, apricots, sultanas and olive oil.

History and character

The village lies between ancient Sikyon and ancient Corinth, and the road that linked the two cities still runs through it. Very close by, at Tarsina, stands the 14th-century Byzantine Church of the Transfiguration. Citrus fruit, apricots, sultana grapes and olives are grown around the village.

Closest points

- Velo — 1.2 km
- Poulitsa — 1.3 km
- Kokkoni — 1.6 km
- Tarsina — 1.8 km

Practical notes

- Easy access from Velo and the old national road.
- For more places to eat, Velo and Vrachati are close by.
- The Corinthian Gulf beaches are a few kilometres away.
