Bekianika

About

Bekianika lies 8.1 km south-west of Corinth.

What to expect

A small hill village on the south-eastern foothills of Acrocorinth, at about 120 metres. It is the western continuation of Solomos, separated from it by the Central Peloponnese motorway and the Potamia stream; together they form the Community of Solomos. Acrocorinth and its monuments are very close.

Closest points

- Solomos — 701 m
- The Upper Peirene Spring — 1.3 km
- Southwestern Tower — 1.5 km
- Temple of Aphrodite — 1.5 km

Practical notes

- Combine the drive with a visit to Acrocorinth.
- For coffee, food and shopping, the nearest centre is Corinth.
- On Acrocorinth wear closed shoes and carry water.

Useful information

Best time to visit	April–June & September–October (mild, uncrowded)
