SIGHTS · CORINTHIA

Castle of Ampiditsa

About

The Castle of Ampiditsa is one of the strongholds that guarded the passes of Corinthia. It lies 18.7 km south of Corinth.

What to expect

Whoever held Corinthia held the way into the Peloponnese, so the region filled with small castles and towers at every critical point. Most survive as ruins standing in open country.

Closest points

- Cave of Klenia — 1.8 km
- Agionorio Castle — 2.2 km
- Temple ruins — 2.3 km
- Klenia — 2.6 km

Practical notes

- Access usually means an uphill walk.
- There is no signage, lighting or railing — take care on the rocks.
- Avoid the hottest hours and the days after rain.
