Little Mylokopi Beach

About

Little Mylokopi is the smaller of the two Mylokopi coves, on the northern shore of the Perachora peninsula.

What to expect

Fine shingle and turquoise water, with a pine wood that comes almost down to the sea and gives shade. Nothing is organised here: bring your own water, coffee and food. The seabed is worth a mask.

Getting there

About half an hour from Loutraki and fifteen minutes from Perachora, by car.

Useful information

Best time to visit	April–June & September–October (mild, uncrowded)
