Loutraki Central Beach

About

Loutraki central beach is pebbly and runs in long stretches through the heart of the town.

What to expect

Fully organised and busy all season, with sunbeds at the water's edge where coffee and drinks are brought to you. There is windsurfing, jet skiing and sailing, and dolphins often appear in summer.

The sunset

It is considered one of the finest in Greece — worth staying to the end of the day for.

Useful information

Best time to visit	April–June & September–October (mild, uncrowded)
