Local Products in Corinthia The Corinthia region is known for the variety of its local products. Among the best known are:

- Corinthian Currant: the famous Corinthian raisin, prized for its sweet, concentrated flavour. It is widely used in desserts, snacks and salads.
- Nemea Wine: Nemea is one of Greece's most important wine zones, built around the Agiorgitiko grape. Dozens of wineries in the area — Semeli among them — produce outstanding reds.
- Corinthian Honey: honey from Corinthia is known for its rich flavour, drawn from the many wild flowers that bloom across the region.
- Corinthian Walnut: Corinthian walnuts are excellent and are commonly used in desserts, salads and other recipes.
- Olive oil: the olive groves of the Corinthian plain and the foothills produce fine extra virgin olive oil.

These local products reflect the rich and varied gastronomic heritage of Corinthia.
